REMARKS .- The market, generally, has been dull during the week, with fair receipts and moderate demand, except for Corn. Flour drooping, with a very moderate enquiry, and all grades have suffered a decline. Wheat is quiet, at a heavy decline, there having been sales to-day of fair white at 220, and red at 215 Corn, which has been steadily declining all the week, rallied this morning, and advanced 5c. sales of upwards of 4,000 bushels being effected at 90c for shipment. The offerings reached 5,200 bushels. Corn Meal is in abundant supply at 95a100 for country and city ground. Rye is quiet, with light receipts, and sales at 125-a decline Sales of 275 bushels Oats at 74c. Butter continues heavy, with large receipts and a poor demand-prices still declining-13a18c being asked for prime. Wool is in fair request at an advance. Coal Oil quiet at 45. Plaster in good demand, but scarce.

BALTIMORE CATTLE MARKET, June 13, 1867 Beef Cattle-- Prices to-day ranged as follows:-Old Cows and Scalawags at $5; fair Cows at $6 a7 50; stock Cattle $7; fair Steers $7 75a8 25; good do $8 75a9 25; and prime Cattle $9 50 per 100 lbs. A few Cattle were sold yesterday at $9 75, but that price could not be obtained today. These prices show a decline of 25a50 cents on good fat Cattle, and 50a75 cents per 100 lbs on common grades.

Sheep-Supply this week is not so large, but the butchers have a heavy stock on hand, and prices remain about the same. Sales of good fat Sheep at 5c per lb gross. Lambs are selling at $3a2 75 per head. Hogs-Supply about equal to the demand; sales at $9a10 per 100 lbs net-but few at the latter price. BALTIMORE MARKET, June 13 .- Flour .-Stocks continue to decrease, and there are now very few lots offering, but notwithstanding this the market shows no improvement. There has been some export demand for Brazil and the the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal is re-opened West Indies, and sales are reported of 1,000 bbls City Mills Winter Wheat Extra for Brazil on private terms, and 500 bbls City Mills Spring Wheat Super for the West Indies at $10. The following sales are also reported: 300 bbls Howard Street Winter Wheat Extra at $11.75; 50 bbls at $11.25a12; and 100 choice do at $13.

Grain-There was some demand for Wheat to-day, and the market was stronger than for some days past. 300 bushels prime Frederick county red at 260; 300 bushels do at same price; 450 bushels good Eastern Shore red at 270; 550 bushels choice red at 287. A sale of 100 bushels very choice Maryland red was reported at 300. Corn opened very weak, and holders anxious to make sales. White Corn declined 5 to 8c, and yellow 3 to 4c.

LOCAL NEWS.

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 14.

THE CONSOLIDATION OF THE ORANGE AND ALEXANDRIA AND MANASSAS GAP RAIL-ROADS.-We are enabled to announce that a speedy consolidation of the above named roads is now confidently anticipated. A meeting of creditors holding the mortgage, bonds of the Manassas Gap Railroad Company was held in this city yesterday, and a proposal submitted on their part to the Orange and Alexandria Railroad Company, by the terms of which the present bondholders agree to surrender the bonds now held and accept in lieu of them the bonds of the consolidated company at a prescribed rate. This rate is estimated at 60 per cent of the amount of the principal and interest now due, and the proposal has been favorably acted on by the authorities of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad Company, and will go into effect at an early day. This arrangement will ensure the transfer of the Manassas road to the Orange and Alexandria Railroad Company, who will at once take control, and commence the work of rebuilding the road to Harrisonburg.

SUSPENSION OF THE COAL TRADE. -The suspension of the coal trade of this city, which, it is sincerely trusted by all who are interested in the prosperity of Alexandria, will be but of limited duration, has been, in addition to its general evil effect upon the city's interest, of particular individual misfortune to many who were employed at the coal depots, or who had, in anticipation of the permanent continuance of the trade, located themselves near there .-The number of laborers, of all descriptions, employed in handling the coal, will necessarily be thrown out of employment, and will have to seek other means of support .-Several industrious and deserving citizens had invested their money, and even borrowed money, to invest in horses, for whose work they had hoped constant employment, but who now have their limited means tied up in animals, for whose labor there is no demand.

Others, such as blacksmiths and other mechanics, and dealers in articles required by the canal boatmen, vessels' hands, and stevedores, of whom there were always large numbers about the coal yards, went to the expense of fitting up places of business, which for a time are devoid of custom, and of no profit to the proproprietors. It is exceedingly regretted that such a condition should exist, but a new aque- train on the Orange and Alexandria Railroad. duct will be erected, and then all will go on swimmingly again. The lessees will do all they can to mitigate these evils and bring about a resumption of trade on the canal as speedily as possible. The trunk of the new aqueduct will be more secure than the original one, but time will be required for its construction, and it is not contemplated that a resumption of navigation on the Alexandria Canal will ensue before next spring.

THE AQUEDUCT.-The Washington Constitational Union says, in reference to the Alexandria Canal Aqueduct :

"We believe it is the intention of the company to reconstruct the Aqueduct, and endeavor to make it water-tight. We would suggest, before they commence to do so, the propriety of erecting a carriage-way over the aqueduct, and charging a certain toll for crossing the same; and we have no hesitation in saying that should they do so, a sufficient amount might be collected from those who would gladly avail themselves of the opportunity of crossing it, to defray at least one-fourth of the cost. Those whose business it is to bring from Virginia produce for the markets would certainly do so instead of being obliged to use the present slow and inconvenient method of crossing from the opposite shore. Many farmers say that it does not pay them to wait so long to get across, and would certainly prefer the more safe way of driving their own teams over even such a bridge as was used during the war. The interests of the people of Georgetown demand that such a bridge should at once be constructed that will afford her neighbors on the opposite shore free, easy, and safe access to their city.

The lessees of the Alexandria Canal, as well as others, have no doubt that the citizens of Georgetown would be delighted to have a bridge thrown over the Potomac river opposite their city, free, to them, of expense, but the question now is whether, in view of the hostility the lessees have continually experienced at the hands of the people of Georgetown, they will go to any unnecessary expense or trouble to afford them any particular gratification.

REMOVE NUISANCES of all kinds, from streets, alleys, yards, and vacant lots. Use lime and disinfectants freely. Report to the Superintendent of Police or Board of Health, any places likely to create disease. Pump the water from all the cellars. Do not permit stagnant water to remain in gutters or sunken ground. Be cautious in the quality and freshness of vegetables used. Abstain from food likely to produce sickness, and especially from stale or unripe fruit. These recommendations are not inappropriate during the hot weather which now prevails. The town is now very healthy. Let all our citizens do what they can to keep it so.

SCHOOL EXERCISES.—The closing exercises of Christ Church Parish School will take place this afternoon, commencing at 5 o'clock. An address is to be delivered by the pastor, Rev. enring dog licenses. A. M. Randolph, after which the distribution of prizes will take place. The school room has been beautifully decorated for the occasion. invited to take charge of the Episcopal church The school has proved a most beneficial insti- at West River, Anne Arundel county, Md. tution, the attendance, during the session, hav ing been large, and a great deal of good resulted from care and attention paid to the little destitute ones. 202107

PROSPECTS OF ALEXANDRIA. - We are glad to learn that this old city, in which we once had many friends, is about to experience a renovation of prosperity. She has gone through a severe ordeal. The re-opening of the Manassas Gap Railroad and the Alexandria, Loudoun and Hampshire Railroad, and the active trade over the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, the peace for six months, and in default of the have given new life to the commerce of the payment of costs, John Sodan will be comcity. - Charlestown Free Press.

A MARMOT. -Mr. James Coleman has at his restaurant, on Prince Street, a specimen of at, Wilmington, N. C., has been arraigned bethe Marmot tribe of animals, which was caught at Jacob's Creek, yesterday morning, by Mr. Albert Fare.

THE PRIZE FIGHT. - The excitement concerning the famous prize fight, continued during the better part of yesterday, or until the issue of the Gazette, containing the result, and, of course, the disappointment of those who had risked their money on the man Collyer, was not easily obliterated. The steamers Virginia and Hi. Livingston, densely crowded, passed this city about six o'clock, and those who landed here were beset immediatly by anxious inquirers after the fullest particulars. These were given with the utmost minutiae, because one of the most distinguished visitors to the scene was a resident of this city, who occupies a high position among the admiters 106, King street. of the pugilistic ring, and was therefore, perfeetly conversant with all that had transpired. Speaking of the incidents of this fight, the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore

"The crowd was, in part, one of the roughest that ever attended even so disgraceful a thing as a prize fight, and thieving and robbery was the order from the time of departure until the return. Robberies were committed in the most open and daring manner, and so powerful in numbers was the crowd of roughs that it was unsafe to except to their conduct. The scenes at the prize ring were of the most disgraceful character. Both the fighters are very badly punished. The left side of Collyer's face is beaten almost to a jelly, and his left eye is completely closed up. Aaron saved his face, but suffered much about the body. Aaron won the fight by studiously and persistently pursuing what is known as the drop-down policy, by which he saved his own skin, and worried, annoyed, and tried his antagonist .-The amount of money that changes hands on account of this result, it is said, will reach into the hundred thusands, as the betting was very extensive, and Collyer seemed to be the favorite. Several thousand dollars changed hands about the prize ring to-day. After the fight Collyer took the boat for Baltimore, and Barney Aaron that for Washington."

RAILROAD ACCIDENTS. -The up passenger train on the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, met with an accident on Wednesday night, about eight o'clock, when opposite the twelve mile post, between Hunter's and Fairfax Stations, which necessitated its return to this city, and detained the passengers some time. No persons were hurt.

The freight train of the Manassas Gap Railroad, when on its way down to this city yesterday evening, after passing Manassas Junction, met with an accident by which two of the cars were smashed, but no one injured. Because of this accident there was a delay, of about two hours, in the arrival of the freight

ALMOST DROWNED .- Peter Smith, a colored man employed at the American Coal Company's Depot, accidentally fell overboard yesterday evening, about half-past five o'clock, in consequence of the sudden breaking of the rope with which he was swinging coal tubs, and would unquestionably been drowned had it not been for the assistance rendered him by Mr. Samuel Henry, the foreman of the yard, and to whom the drowning man's fellow laborers, leaving him to his fate, broke from the spot, and ran to give information of the accident.

STOLEN ARTICLES .- Among the stolen articles discovered by officers Chipley and Aubinoe, yesterday morning, in the house on Wash ington street, between Wolfe and Wilkes, occapied by the colored people, whose names were published in yesterday's Gazette, and who are now confined in jail awaiting an examination, were a lot of bags and about one hundred pounds of bacon, which, however, have not yet been identified.

RECEIPTS OF CORN.—The offerings of corn on 'Change during the week ending to-day, reached thirty-three thousand one hundred and fifty bushels, besides which there have been large quantities purchased in the country for houses here, which will swell the receipt to upwards of forty thousand bushels.

OVERBOARD. -Two little boys, the children of Mrs. Virginia Tatsapaugh, while playing on a log floating in Prince street dock, yesterday evening, about six o'clock, slipped off by the log's turning, but, fortunately, were rescued by Mr. John Larue, who happened to be in the neighborhood at the time.

STILL AT LARGE. - The colored man named James Bird, who struck Silas Russell, also colored, on the head with a hoe, while the two were at work, near Accofink, last Safurday, from the effects of which blow the latter died is still at large, though the officers have been
